

10TH ANNUAL

ARPA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

NOVEMBER 2-4 EGYPTIAN THEATRE, HOLLYWOOD

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE FILM FESTIVAL

“The People’s Advocate: The Life and Times of Charles R. Garry” (2007)

Documentary, USA, 59 min.

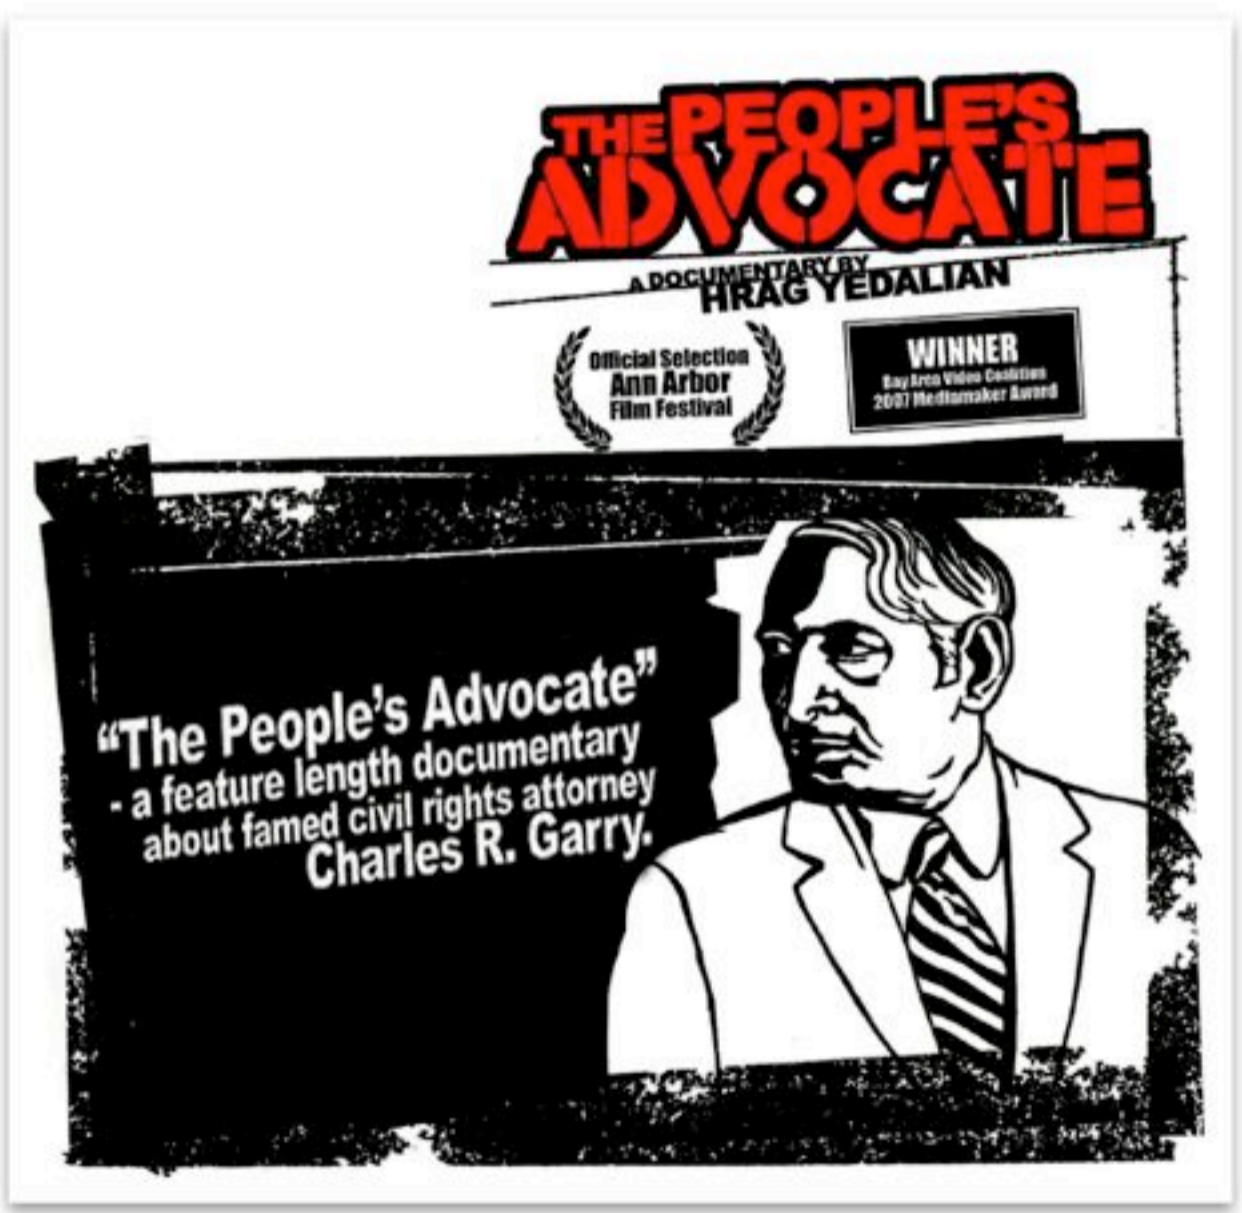

Director: Hrag Yedalian

Nicknamed "The Lenin of the Courtroom", Charles R. Garry (former Garabedian), was one of the most influential criminal defense attorneys of the 20th century, who became a household name during the 1960s. Garry's career came to an unexpected and tragic halt in 1978 when his client, the Reverend Jim Jones of the Peoples Temple, led over 900 of his followers in mass suicide at Jonestown.

Screening at the 10th Annual Arpa International film festival on Nov. 2, 2007 at 5:45 PM. For ticket information:
