

Healing Our Communities!

Mama Charlotte Hill O'Neal at home in Tanzania, East Africa

During Black History Month and International Women's Month in February and March, 2009 Mama Charlotte Hill O'Neal will be available to speak in schools, community centers, religious congregations, at private functions, etc. in communities across America!

Mama Charlotte, co Director at the United African Alliance Community Center UAACC, musician, visual artist, poet, film maker and inspirational speaker of many years experience will speak on the more than two decades of work that has been going on at the UAACC in Tanzania, East Africa and the Spirit of Volunteerism that informs it all!

In addition, she will be available to screen the award winning documentary by Aaron Matthews, "A Panther in Africa" on the work of former Black Panther leader and founder of UAACC, Pete O'Neal, and to lead community discussions afterwards

Mama Charlotte will also speak on the ongoing community projects initiated by UAACC and the surrounding community including the latest program to assist orphans and children in desperate life circumstances, The Leaders of Tomorrow Children's Home. (see accompanying information on this most important project about how you can have the opportunity to participate through your support of the program!)

Plus, she will be available to perform selections from her latest album, Music is My Medicine and spoken word from her book of poetry, Warrior Woman of Peace,

And Mama Charlotte is able to facilitate the screening of film festivals of exciting documentaries and music videos by East African filmmakers!
