

Houston Chapter Headquarters-1974

Vacant lot where once stood People's Party II HQ-1970

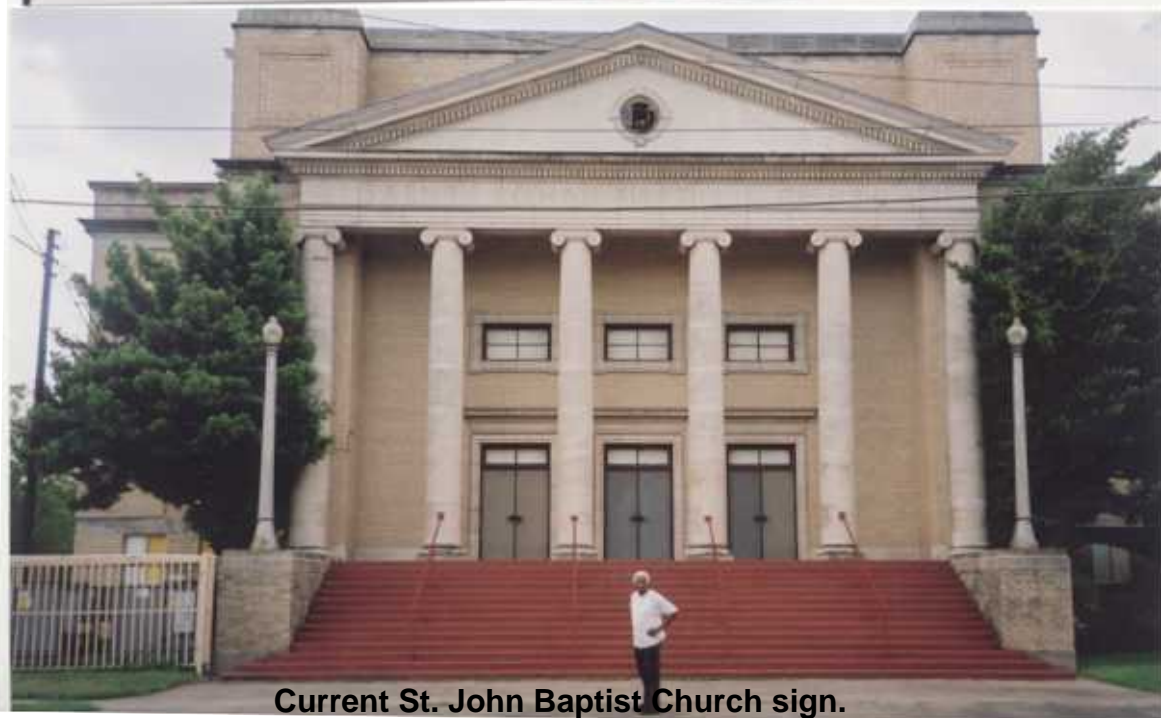

Brothers Boko and Sensei (members of Houston Chapter standing on vacant lot where stood the first BPP HQ(2 doors from PP II HQ).

Commemorative Plaque on the steps that remain from the above HQ.

Current St. John Baptist Church sign.

Current St. John Baptist Church sign.

Chance of Showers
Houston, Texas, (AP) -
Forecast for today and tomorrow: Partly cloudy with showers. High 70, low 50.

Black Militant Slain on Dowling

Jordan Accepts Truce With One Condition

The militant leader of the Black Panther Party, Fred Hampton, was slain in a shooting on Dowling street in Houston on Monday night. The police announced that the 27-year-old Hampton was shot by a police officer who was on duty at the time of the shooting. Hampton was the leader of the Black Panther Party in Houston and was known for his militant activities. The police announced that Hampton was shot in the chest and died at the scene. The police also announced that they had arrested several other individuals in connection with the shooting. The police are currently investigating the shooting and are looking for more information about the incident.

Police, Gunmen Exchange Fire; 52 Are Arrested

Police and gunmen exchanged fire on Dowling street in Houston on Monday night, resulting in the death of a Black Panther Party militant and the arrest of 52 individuals. The shooting occurred in the early hours of the morning. The police announced that they had arrested 52 individuals in connection with the shooting. The police are currently investigating the shooting and are looking for more information about the incident. The police also announced that they had recovered several firearms and other items from the scene. The police are currently holding the arrested individuals and are questioning them about the shooting.

... mysteriously missing

... mysteriously missing

SHAPE COMMUN...

Newspaper clippings the morning after police seige.

July 13, 1970 Houston Times WHILE CHIEF SHORT SPOUS ANARCHY

Diacritical View Of Dowling Street Confrontation

By Thomas H. White
While officers riding and patrolling the streets of Houston on Monday night, they were looking for a group of Black Panthers who had been reported to be in the area. The police announced that they had arrested 52 individuals in connection with the shooting. The police are currently investigating the shooting and are looking for more information about the incident. The police also announced that they had recovered several firearms and other items from the scene. The police are currently holding the arrested individuals and are questioning them about the shooting.

... moments after Dowling Standoff

Moments After Dowling Standoff

... moments after Dowling Standoff

... moments after Dowling Standoff

... moments after Dowling Standoff

