

Friends, enemies, Comrades, pretenders, Sisters and Brothers; John Henry Bowman III has transcended to be with our ancestors. With his departure, the light of the world will shine less bright. In the pain of our sadness, remember not to forget, that he always answered the call to defend, serve and protect us.

To the pretenders and their allies, the "enemies of humanity", beware! Celebrate at your own risk the silence of this warrior's courageous heart. Just know that the seeds of resistance to your agenda has been planted and nurtured by the example of his life.

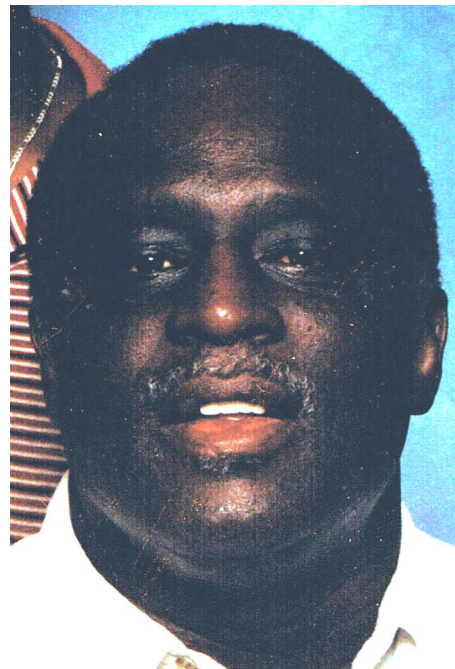

Join us for a celebration of his transition 1/11/07 2:30 P.M., at True Vine Church, 3701 N.E. 36th and Spencer Rd., Spencer, Oklahoma. We will also pay tribute to him on January 28th in San Francisco.
