

PANTHER NEWS

The legacy of the Black Panther Party (BPP) lives on in spirit in Oakland, CA and many other cities and countries around the world.

The It's About Time Committee was established in 1995 in Sacramento, CA, by former BPP members and supporters to organize the 30th Year Reunion of the Black Panther Party. Since then, It's About Time has been organizing exhibits and events and working with other BPP alumni around the world to keep the legacy alive and provide accurate historical information about the BPP.

It's About Time Activities:

- Published two alumni newspapers, Panther News and It's About Time - 1996 to present
- Established Bobby Hutton Day in Oakland, CA - 1997
- Leadership role in Organizing Geronimo Day in Oakland - 1997
- Established Books Behind Bars, a program that sends reading materials to prisoners throughout the country
- Helped organize the Angola 3 Defense Committee
- Established BPP History Month
- Established the "Louder Than Words" BPP Photo Exhibit
- Organized the 35th Year BPP Reunion in Washington DC
- Organized the 36th Year BPP Anniversary Celebration in Oakland, CA
- Established our website as a resource on historical and current events related to the BPP and related struggles:
itsabouttimebpp.com
- Established an extensive historical archives
- Currently planning the 40th Year BPP Reunion Conference

BLACK PANTHER PARTY LEGACY WEBSITE: itsabouttimebpp.com

Resources include historical information about -

- Black Panther Party History
- Chapter Histories
- Women of the BPP
- Interviews with former members
- BPP Newspapers (samples)
- The Ten Point Platform and Program
- Survival Programs
- Fallen Comrades
- Political Prisoners
- Historical and Current Events
- Other underground papers
- Photos of BPP members and activities - then and now
- Updates on former members current activities
- And much more

LOUDER THAN WORDS
BLACK PANTHER PARTY TRAVELING PHOTO EXHIBIT

Rare and historical photos depicting the growth and development of the Black Panther Party in America. More than 40 photos show BPP members and community workers doing daily fieldwork. There are photos of Huey P. Newton, Bobby Seale, Angela Davis, George Jackson, Kwame Ture (Stokely Carmichael), Kathleen Cleaver and other leaders of the Black Liberation Movement of the 1960's and 1970's.

The Photo Exhibit is part of our ongoing educational programs about the Black Panther Party and its historical legacy.

Help educate the people by bringing this exhibit to your school, college, church or community center.

For more information or for future bookings call (916) 455-0908 or e-mail: itsabouttime3@juno.com

BOOKS BEHIND BARS

It's About Time sends reading materials to prisoners across the U.S., many of whom use the materials in study groups. Please help us by donating money or used books, especially historical or progressive literature.

IT'S ABOUT TIME HISTORICAL ARCHIVES

- Over 500 BPP Newspapers
- Panther Photo Gallery- Hundreds of historical photos
- Memorabilia: Buttons, Posters, Flyers
- Over 100 videos on the BPP and related progressive struggles
- Audio Interviews and personal manuscripts
- Underground newspapers
- Collections of Black Press from the 1960's and 1970's, including Ebony, Jet, Black Scholar and the Sun Reporter
- Mainstream Press articles and magazines about the BPP and related struggles, including Life, Look, Newsweek and newspaper articles
- FBI and other Police Intelligence documents
- Speakers Bureau Available

BLACK PANTHER PARTY 40th YEAR REUNION

Oakland, CA - October 2006

Photo and Art Exhibits featuring Emory Douglas, the It's About Time Traveling Photo exhibit, and exhibits by New York Panthers and the private collections of Sam Brooks and Alden Kimbrough

Future announcements upcoming!