

black panther commemoration committee presents...

BLACK PANTHER LEGACY EMORY DOUGLAS & BILLY X

An exclusive exhibition of Panther artwork, followed by a Q&A with Emory Douglas, Minister of Culture for the Black Panther Party, and Billy X, head of the Panther Alumni

Darcus Howe, journalist, broadcaster and perhaps England's best known Black Panthers, will also be speaking

The Tabernacle | Powis Square | London W11 2AY | 8 November 2008 | 5pm-9pm | £10 / £12 on door

black panther commemoration committee presents...

BLACK PANTHER LEGACY EMORY DOUGLAS & BILLY X

An exclusive exhibition of Panther artwork, followed by a Q&A with Emory Douglas, Minister of Culture for the Black Panther Party, and Billy X, head of the Panther Alumni

Darcus Howe, journalist, broadcaster and perhaps England's best known Black Panthers, will also be speaking

The Tabernacle | Powis Square | London W11 2AY | 8 November 2008 | 5pm-9pm | £10 / £12 on door

For more information, please contact:
bpcc66@gmail.com or check out:
<http://blackpanther1966.blogspot.com>

To purchase your tickets online at a reduced advance rate please go to:

<http://www.carnivalvillage.org.uk/november.htm>

Emory Douglas' beautiful and striking art work conveyed the politics of the Black Liberation Movement; an exhibition of his work and a Q&A with him on 'The Art of Revolution'.

Also featuring:

the head of the Black Panther Alumni, Billy X Jennings &

Darcus Howe, journalist, broadcaster and one of the best known English Panthers will also speak on the panel.

Zena Edwards, poet, musician and singer will be performing poetry and music using traditional African instruments and new technology to layer her mellifluous singing and speaking voice.

Ashley Thomas AKA Bashy is at the pinnacle of a new wave of fresh British inner city musical talent that's emerged over the last few years. Amidst reports of shootings and stabbing almost daily, Bashy presents a much needed alternative vision and will perform 'Black Boys' live on the night...

Clarence Thompson is Chairman of the West Indian Standing Conference and a poet. He will perform his anti-apartheid poem 'Pathway to Freedom' on the night...

*N.B The seating at this event is limited and tickets will almost certainly sell out. Please book in advance to avoid disappointment.
The profit from this event will go towards the Black Panther Alumni projects in the U.S.