KARENGA DENIES KNOWLEDGE

FRED HOFFMAN

US Master Maulana Ron Karenga issued a denial that he had anything to do with the UCLA theatrical assault. He disclaimed all knowledge of the shooting. The police said the shooting could not be considered an act by US. It must be remembered that we were the people who advocated political action during the King Crisis of last year. How quickly people forget... We have never denied violence. Instead we have been in the battle to win people's minds. We are a cultural movement.

"This would be better left as a student incident. After all there were 17 shots fired or so I'm told, so the men who were killed couldn't have just been standing around taking. We must remember that all kinds of statements will be made and labeling people relieves one of the responsibility of dealing with people.""Karenga charged that the Black Panthers have become a front for white leftists such as SDS, Peace and Freedom and the Progressive Labor Party. He was beginning to sound a little like Mayor Toney when he said "The old system of the left is to use front organizations."

The police reported: "Whatever happened at UCLA was begun in the 60's and the high school students and that's where we have to begin. It's been a long and arduous struggle to group it would have been much more serious.

Karenga charged that the Black Panthers have been involved in the staging of the Watts riot and that the Panthers have been involved in the staging of the Watts riot. He is right in saying that the Panthers have been involved in the staging of the Watts riot. FOLK GUITARIST GONE

Win a Free Trip to Treasure Island
Where have all the young men gone?
Gone too, the musical magic of one young folk guitarist, Mick Scott. Scott, whose playing has echoed from the steps of Sproul Hall, has left Berkeley. His performance at the Community Center was a treat to the ears and the soul.

However, with more than 200 students still wanting to play, and some feeling left out, the main issue now is a new venue. A number of students, faculty, and community organizations have been actively seeking a new location for the Student Concerts.

The P&F Committee, the Berkeley community council, has published a position paper on the controversy, and has been actively seeking a new venue for the concerts. Both the FAC and the General Faculty voted down resolutions favoring a new venue, but the student body and faculty have been pushing for a new location.

There has been considerable support for a new venue in recent statements made by college officials in the past few days. University president, John Silliman, in a recent statement, said that the university will support any new venue that is proposed. However, the FAC has stated that they will continue to fight for a new venue until one is found.

The P&F Committee has decided to hold a new drive to raise funds for a new venue. The drive will be held on April 1st.

WHITE PANTHERS SHOW

The White Panther Party, originating in Detroit, has now made its way to Berkeley, bringing with it an opening statement released by Rap-it-All.

"Those who make peaceful revolution impossible make violent revolution inevitable."

The opening statement is a factual statement. Although it was later described as a speech, the party agrees with Malcolm X's statement on the matter. Rap-it-All is a fact.

The White Panther Party does not advocate violence for ideological reasons. The party does not have a policy to use violence. The party believes in peaceful methods.

In Berkeley, the party plans to hold a series of meetings to discuss their goals and strategies.

The White Panther Party is committed to working towards a better world for all people. They believe that the only way to achieve this is through peaceful methods. The party is willing to work with others to achieve this goal.

Last week, Debray expressed the hope that the Bolivian army and the people of Bolivia would continue to defend the nation as they did in 1959. He said that he was happy under the command of the Bolivian military and that he would continue to serve his country in this way.

And here I wish to pay tribute to the Bolivian army and people. In 1959, I was told that we had been under the command of a friend of the people of Bolivia, a man who had fought for the revolution. And that night, when the Bolivian army came to kidnap him from the hospital, the arterial bleeding continued, and he could not be saved. Several hours later, on the street, there was no such thing as a bullet. But the Bolivian army remained in control, and the people of Bolivia continued to defend the revolution.

It appears that when this man left, he was not completely satisfied with the result of his participation in the Bolivian revolution. He was working faster than ever before, but he was not satisfied with the outcome of his participation. He was systematically linked to those of the CIA, and it was thanks to his information that the Bolivian army was able to carry out the necessary measures. However, when he was taken to the hospital, he was not able to tell his story. It is a very sad story, and it is a very sad end to this man's life.

I return to the trial. The trial of Debray was a trial not only against a single individual but against a whole revolution. The Bolivian army was involved in everything, including the use of brutal force to suppress the revolutionary movement. It was a trial not only against Debray but also against the whole Bolivian revolutionary movement.

Let's consider the situation. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the revolutionaries, and the Bolivian army was not able to speak to the international community. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world.

The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world.

There is one more thing that needs to be said. This is a very important thing. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world. The Bolivian army was not able to speak to the world.
